

SERVUS AND A WARM WELCOME AT OUR PAULANER WIRTSCHAUS GLÜCKSTEINALLEE!

As early as 1870, the Wilhelminian buildings of the depot and the locomotive shed were erected as part of the former Mannheim Central Station and have undoubtedly been a memorable piece of Mannheim's railway history ever since! While locomotives and wagons used to be serviced, the workshop building and the rail vehicle hall that was built later are now the new home of a Bavarian success story: the Paulaner Wirtshaus Glücksteinallee.

Munich's Paulaner Brewery also has a centuries-old tradition. Since it was founded by the Paulaner monks in 1634 in Munich's Au district, it has been known for the outstanding quality of its products – the beer brewed there was a complete success right from the start!

Following the example of the brewery's historic headquarters, the restaurant Paulaner am Nockherberg, we bring the Bavarian way of life, hearty food and excellent beer, to our guests all over the world. We are very pleased that you can now also enjoy our centuries-old brewing expertise here in Mannheim!

Prost – we are looking forward to serving you!
Ihr Team des Paulaner Glücksteinallee

Munich Lifestyle

The "Maß" of beer shimmers golden yellow in the sun. Heavenly scents of "Steckerlfisch" and roasted pork knuckle blow through the air. At the next table, in the shade of the chestnut trees, a man unpacks his "Brotzeit", a typical Bavarian snack consisting of bread and "Brezn", and something suitable like cheese and sausage. This is real Bavarian beer garden idyll in one of Munich's "Wirtshäuser" and perfect summer happiness.
